

INTERNATIONAL STUDENT'S DESIGNATED CAREGIVER AGREEMENT

Taita College expects Designated Caregivers to:

- provide a warm, caring environment where the physical and emotional well-being of the student can be nurtured.
- provide three meals a day (including any takeaways or meals out at the caregiver's expense).
- attend parent/teacher conferences/interviews when held.
- care for the student as you would your own child.
- provide a warm, comfortable room for the student.
- ensure that the school has up to date information of caregiver's address and student's address and contact numbers at all times.
- set reasonable rules and boundaries and discuss expectations of these with the student.
- contact the school immediately if there are any concerns whatsoever concerning the welfare, health and safety of the student.
- be home after school for the student and to never leave the student in the house on his/her own or under the supervision of children under the age of 14.
- be able to pick up the student from the airport on the arrival date, and take the student to the airport on the departure date.
- Inform the school immediately when their situation changes

The Designated Caregiver can expect the school to:

- provide a safe learning environment for the student.
- ensure the student's safety and emotional well-being is taken care of.
- provide an ESOL programme for the student (if applicable).
- provide contact through the Director of International Students of the school.
- provide school newsletters and any other information sent to parents of students at the school.
- provide school reports.
- provide support and quick action in case of problems.
- provide support for school rules.

Should there be a concern about the welfare of the student, the school will consult the pastoral care staff within the school and will discuss the concern with the parents of the student. If necessary, the school will also refer the matter to CYFS, NETS, the New Zealand Police or any other appropriate outside agencies.

I believe in my best judgement that the two signatories mentioned above will provide a reasonable and safe environment for:
