

YEAR 11 HISTORY

COURSE INFORMATION

Year 11 History focuses on some major 20th Century events in both New Zealand and the world. It is a 'stand alone' course which introduces students to a wide range of skills, including research and writing skills which are relevant to employment and to future courses of study at school and beyond.

COURSE OVERVIEW

During the year, we study 3 topics:

Black Civil Rights in The USA 1954 - 1970

- The position of blacks in USA society in the mid-1950s and moves for change
- How they attempted change this position in the 1950s and 1960s
- What social justice actions took place in the fight for Black civil rights

New Zealand conflict, protest and change

- Why and how New Zealand expressed opposition to the Vietnam War, Nuclear Issues, Springbok Tours.
- Bastion Point and the Maori Land March. Raglan Golf Course Protests

Gallipoli

- What were the causes and consequences of the Gallipoli campaign
- What were the different perspectives of those who fought against each other
- What was the significance of the campaign at the time and why is it still important in New Zealand society today

The topics will introduce you to important leaders and political, social and economic trends in New Zealand and the wider world in the 20th century.

Assessment: NCEA - the National Certificate of Educational Achievement.

This qualification is designed to give students credit where they can demonstrate specific skills. In this subject, the skills will be History-related, such as research and essay writing. There are six achievement standards for History. Each is worth 4 credits in value, a total of 24 credits. Four of these achievement standards will be assessed during the year by your teacher (internal assessment) and the remaining two will be assessed in a national examination (external assessment). There will also be one Unit Standard worth five credits.

Internal Assessment:	1.1	Carry out an investigation of an historical event, or place, of significance to New Zealanders	4 credits AS 901001
	1.2	Demonstrate understanding of an historical event, or place, of significance to New Zealanders	4 credits AS 901002
	1.4	Demonstrate understanding of different perspectives of people in an historical event significant to New Zealand	4 credits AS901004
	1.5	Describe a social justice and human rights action	4 credits AS91043
		Carry out an investigation into an aspect of Pacific indigenous culture	5 credits US17162
External Assessment	1.3	Interpret sources of an historical event of significance to New Zealanders	4 Credits AS901003
	1.5	Describe the causes and consequences of an historical event how a significant historical event affected New Zealand society	4 credits AS 901005
			Total: 29 credits

There will also be one school exam, topic tests and other homework tasks. These activities do not count towards internal assessment.